1989 SEASON OUTLOOK

Cedarville begins its 27th year of varsity soccer and the Yellow Jackets will be seeking their ninth straight winning season. The '80's have been good to Coach JOHN MCGILLIVRAY'S teams as they have posted a 99-68-10 record during the decade.

The Yellow Jackets are coming off of their second straight 11-9-1 season and they are the defending NCCAA District III champs. But some key players graduated including two-time NAIA-NSCAA All-America sweeper Paul Norman.

Last year's top three scorers are back in DAVE KOHLMAYER, team MVP BRENT DAVIS, and ROGER SWIGART. The threesome combined for 22 goals and 15 assists which was more than half of the team's output.

McGillivray says his team must still put an emphasis on scoring even with his top scorers back. The Yellow Jackets were shutout in eight of the nine losses in '88.

Junior goalkeeper DAVE WEAVER returns to the nets following two years of varsity experience. He had a 1.67 goals against average last year with five shutouts.

The most depth and experience on this fall's club will be at midfield. Overall, a core of good players return, but it will take some time to fill the vacancies created by graduation.
